THE TOCCOLAN CLUB

The Toccolan Club Motto :

“Enjoying our Heritage and supporting the Melbourne Community”

The Toccolan Club was formed in 1990 as a non-profit organization committed to:

- Promoting the exchange of business, friendship and camaraderie between its members and their guests.
- Raising funds for charities and worthwhile causes.
- Increasing community awareness of the good work of the charities it assists in order to better serve the community. The Toccolan Club aims to assist by making additional financial resources available to them.
- Attracting members to various luncheons, dinners & other social gatherings on a regular basis.

The name “Toccolan” is derived from the name of the small village in the Central Italian region of Italy, where many of the Club’s founding member’s parents were born. The Toccolan Club however, is a Club which transcends cultural boundaries, enjoying a reputation for excellence and a commitment to the general community.

The Toccolan Club relies solely upon the generosity of its members, guests and its sponsors for its income.

THE CHARITY

Think about a typical day in your life and then take away family, friends and community. The grim reality is that at any given night here in the “lucky country” around 50,000 young people under 24 years of age are homeless and experiencing social exclusion – living a half life that often leads to drugs, crime and prostitution.

Over the past 18 years the Lighthouse Foundation has managed to change the future for many disadvantaged young people, by providing a home, support and care – like the one you provide for your own family.

Using the Lighthouse Foundation’s Therapeutic Family Model of Care, young people are supported with everything that a family usually would give – psychological, emotional and physical well being; access to education and training, healthy relationships, social and life skills.

The Lighthouse Foundation believes its Model of Care offers these young people the best opportunity to develop and grow into independent and contributing members of society.

Your kind support allows the Lighthouse Foundation to continue their great work and takes them one step closer to eradicating youth homelessness.
